RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Resolution 2

Senate Resolution 2, introduced by Senator Breaux:

A SENATE RESOLUTION honoring Command Sergeant Major George Choung as founder of the Stingrays Drill Team and Color Guard.

Whereas, After serving in the Vietnam War and returning to the United States, CSM Choung found that youth had little respect for the military or returning servicepeople so the Stingrays movement emerged, in part out of his strong desire to provide youngsters a positive image of the military through a disciplined program that would boost team work, their self-image and confidence;

Whereas, Under the sponsorship of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion and other local community and state agencies, Choung was commissioned to organize and develop Stingrays Chapters in rural towns in New York and Pennsylvania;

Whereas, This program uses military drill and ceremonies to teach marching and maneuvering patterns, self-discipline, confidence, leadership, pride, and respect for the flag of the United States and in 1967 the Buffalo Stingrays were the first chapter to win the National VFW Championship and in 1982 the 98th Division Stingrays of Western New York under the direction of Master Sergeant Choung competed in a world competition capturing the class and overall title;

Whereas, Following the strong tradition of the Stingrays Drill Team/Color Guard programs of previous decades, CSM Choung introduced the program to IPS School #2, the Center for Inquiry (CFI) in 1993 and in 2003 the CFI All-American Stingrays Competition Drill Team was organized, which incorporates elementary, middle and high school students into a single marching entity, and they won and continue to win both state and national competitions;

Whereas, CMS Choung earned his Bachelors Degree in Elementary Education from Buffalo State University and earned his Masters from Sacramento State College in Social Work and is married to Donna Choung who works for the US Postal Service and has two daughters, Jenine and Cerissa who live in Indianapolis; and

Whereas, George Choung is the current Post Commander of Fort Harrison VFW Post 7119, Chairman of the Indiana State VFW Drill and Ceremony, Chief Judge of the Midwest Drill Team Federation, Chairman of the 11th District VFW JROTC, Trustee with Amvets Post 99, member of the Military Order of the Cooties, member of the Millersville Masonic Lodge 128, a 32 Degree Mason, instruction of the New Bethel Baptist Drill Team and a member of a variety of other organization: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana State Senate hereby honors Command Sergeant Major George Choung.

SECTION 2. That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of the Resolution to Command Sergeant Major George Choung.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution in its regular order, but shall note the session days remaining for action.

(b) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but shall have received an equal number of affirmative votes and negative votes of the Senators present (the same number but less than 25 of each the yeas and nays), such bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote, without debate, during the call of bills on third reading on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution in its regular order, but shall note the days remaining for action.

(c) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but has received 25 affirmative votes and 25 negative votes of the Senators present, and the President of the Senate is not present to give the casting vote, such bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote during the call of bills on third reading on a subsequent day that the Senate is convened when the President of the Senate is present. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution in its regular order.

(d) When a bill or joint resolution shall have failed for want of a constitutional majority, but shall have received the negative vote of a majority of the Senators present (more nays than yeas but less than 26 nays), such bill or joint resolution shall be in order for reconsideration on motion by any Senator of the prevailing (nays) side made during the call of bills on third reading on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote; provided, however, that only one motion to reconsider a bill or joint resolution shall be in order during the session and the vote on such motion shall be without debate. If the motion to reconsider passes, the bill or joint resolution may be called down by the author or sponsor for a second and final vote, without debate, during the call of bills on third reading on a subsequent day but within three (3) days that the Senate is convened following the initial vote on the bill or joint resolution. The call down of such a bill or joint resolution shall not be counted as a third reading call of the author or sponsor. The daily calendar shall list such bill or joint resolution separately under the heading "Rule 78(d) Bills and Joint Resolutions," following the third reading bills, and shall note the days remaining for action.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (d), whenever a particular bill or joint resolution receives a constitutional majority of votes against its passage (26 or more nays), that bill or joint resolution shall be considered decisively defeated and shall not be considered again during the session; provided, however, that this provision on decisive defeat does not apply to the operating or construction budgets or to state revenue raising measures which may be brought before the Senate in the same or different bills until adopted.

VII. ETHICS

87. It is declared that high moral and ethical standards among State Senators are essential to the conduct of free government; that the Senate believes that a code of ethics for the guidance of State Senators will help them avoid conflicts of interest in public office, will improve standards of public service, and will promote and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of Indiana. The code is intended to protect the individual Senators while providing guidelines for all members of the Senate.

Recognizing that service in the Indiana General Assembly is a part-time endeavor and that members of the General Assembly are individuals who are active in the affairs of their localities and elsewhere and that it is necessary that they maintain a livelihood and source of income apart from their legislative compensation, the following guidelines are adopted to assist the members in the conduct of their legislative duties.

88. A Senator who is offered:

(1) an economic or investment opportunity; or

(2) a loan, gratuity, discount, favor, hospitality, or other goods or services; by a person, shall consider, in determining whether or not to accept the offer, whether the Senator's acceptance of the offer may affect the Senator's independent legislative judgment. In so considering, the Senator shall take into account the following:

(A) whether the opportunity is being offered with the intent to influence the Senator's conduct in the performance of legislative duties; or

(B) whether acceptance of the offer would have a unique, direct, and material effect on the nonlegislative income of the Senator, a member of the Senator's immediate family or those of a partnership, corporation or business in which the Senator holds a legal or equitable interest.

Should the Senator determine that, by acceptance of the offer, the Senator's independent legislative judgment may be affected, the Senator shall refuse the offer.

89. A Senator who has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in a piece of legislation which is so substantial as to affect the Senator's independent legislative judgment is not precluded from participating in committee and floor debate on the legislation, if the Senator publicly proclaims that interest.

90. During the course of a legislative session, a Senator may be placed in a position where the Senator has the obligation to vote on legislation in which the Senator has a direct personal or pecuniary interest. In making this decision pursuant to Rule 4 of the Standing Rules of the Senate and Orders for Government relative to the Senator's activity on the legislation, the Senator shall consider the following:

(1) Whether the Senator's interest in the legislation is so substantial as to affect the Senator's independence of judgment with respect to the legislation.

(2) To what extent the Senator's interest in the legislation mirrors the interest of the citizenry to which the Senator is directly responsible.

(3) The effect of the Senator's participation in the voting on the legislation on public confidence in the integrity of the legislature.

(4) The need of the Senator's particular contribution, such as special knowledge of the subject matter, to the effective functioning of the legislature.

(5) Whether the legislation would have a unique, direct, and material effect on the nonlegislative income of the Senator, a member of the Senator's immediate family or those of a partnership, corporation, or business in which the Senator holds a legal or equitable interest.

91. A Senator may request the assistance of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee (established pursuant to IC 2-2.1-3-5) in determining the propriety of the Senator's:

- (1) proposed acceptance of an offer;
- (2) participation in upcoming debate; or
- (3) participation in an upcoming vote.

92. Under Rule 91, the Senator shall:

(1) Prepare a written statement describing the matter requiring action or decision by the Senator and the nature of the Senator's potential conflict of interest; and

(2) Deliver a copy of the statement to the Chairman of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee. If the Chairman is unavailable, a copy of the statement may be delivered to the President Pro Tempore.

93. If a Senator requests the assistance of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee under Rule 91, and there is insufficient time to comply with Rule 92, the Senator shall orally inform the Chairman of the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee of the potential conflict. The matter shall then be immediately referred to the Legislative Ethics Committee for its recommendation. The Committee shall issue an oral recommendation to the Senator making the request as soon as possible after considering the request. The Committee shall follow the oral recommendation with a written report as required by Senate Rule 95.

94. The Legislative Ethics Committee shall meet as soon as possible and render an advisory opinion on the question raised. Should the committee vote result in a tie, the effect will be to make no recommendation.

95. The written report of the Legislative Ethics Committee shall be forwarded to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Senate Minority Leader. Copies of the report and the written statement of the Senator making the request shall be maintained in the offices of the Majority Attorney and the Minority Attorney. The committee's written report and the written statement of the Senator making the request under Rule 92 shall remain confidential unless the Senator making the request consents to their disclosure.

96. In addition to any meetings held under Rule 94, the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee shall meet and may recommend amendments to the code of ethics for the Senate not later than thirty (30) days after the first session day of each legislative session, pursuant to IC 2-2.1-3-6.

97.(a) A Senator may not accept, from a lobbyist registered in Indiana or an organization that employs a lobbyist registered in Indiana, direct or indirect payment or reimbursement for transportation, lodging or other expenses associated with travel outside of the state for any purpose.

(b) This rule does not apply to expenses associated with travel outside of the state for any purpose that is paid for by an organization or corporation of which the Senator or the Senator's spouse is an officer, member of the board of directors, employee, or independent contractor.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Madam President: The Senate Committee on Joint Rules has met to consider the Joint Rules of both Houses for the 115th General Assembly of the State of Indiana and begs leave to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the Joint Rules of both Houses for the 115th General Assembly for the State of Indiana, be adopted as the Joint Rules of both Houses for the 115th General Assembly of the State of Indiana as follows:

JOINT RULES FOR CONDUCTING BUSINESS IN THE TWO HOUSES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF INDIANA

1. After a bill or resolution has passed one house and before it shall be transmitted to the other house for further action, it shall be the duty of the author to furnish to the clerk of the house of origin a card bearing the name of the party selected as sponsor in the other house, which card shall be attached to the bill and transmitted therewith.

2. (a) After a bill or joint resolution shall have passed both houses it shall be duly enrolled on paper, and the clerk of the house where it originated shall certify over his or her signature upon the back thereof the house in which it originated, the dates upon which it passed the House and Senate, respectively, and the number of votes cast for and against it in each house.

(b) Every enrolled bill or joint resolution shall be printed in enrolled act form. The session of the General Assembly shall be indicated on the face of such printed enrollment. In the case of enrolled bills proposing to amend any then existing Indiana statute, the text shall reflect any change from the text of the then existing statute. This shall be accomplished by the use of bold face type to indicate the addition of new material to the text of the then existing statute, and canceled type to indicate the deletion of existing material.

3. Every bill or joint resolution, after having been enrolled, shall be examined by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures of the house in which it originated, which shall compare the enrolled copy with the engrossed copy, or cause the author thereof to do so, taking special care that the engrossed amendments adopted by either house, if any there be, shall have been properly incorporated in said enrolled copy and shall report in writing to said house any errors therein.

4. (a) Every bill or joint resolution reported to have been duly enrolled shall be signed first by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall send the same to the Senate; then by the President and President Pro Tempore of the Senate, after which it shall be presented by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Governor for his signature.

(b) Except as provided in this rule, all bills and joint resolutions shall be signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate, in their houses respectively, when in session.

(c) During a recess period, the Speaker and the President of the Senate may sign bills and resolutions in their respective offices. A list of the bills and resolutions signed during any recess shall be read immediately upon the reconvening of each house.

5. A record of all bills and resolutions signed, whether in session or during a recess, shall be kept in the Journals of each house.

6. When any paper or papers, proper to be acted upon by both houses, shall come before either, the house before which such paper or papers are laid shall, after acting thereupon, lay it or them before the other house.

7. (a) In every case of an amendment of a bill agreed to in one house, and dissented to in the other, either house may request a conference and appoint a committee for that purpose; the other house may also appoint a committee. A conference committee shall consist of two members from each house; one member from the house in which the bill or resolution originated shall be named as chairman by the appointing authority of the house of origination.

(b) Conferees shall state to each other verbally or in writing, as either shall choose, the reason of their respective houses for and against the amendment, and confer freely thereon and report to each house their proceedings thereon. Meetings of conference committees shall be held at a convenient hour agreed upon by the conferees and shall be open to the public, whenever feasible, in which event, notice shall be posted before such meeting in accordance with the rules of the house in which the bill originated. It is the intent of this joint rule to provide public access to the legislative process without hindering, intimidating or disrupting that process.

8. In all cases where the Doorkeeper of one house shall, by reason of official engagement, or other causes, be unable to execute the commands or process of the house of which he is an officer, it shall be the duty of the Doorkeeper of the other house to execute such commands, together with such process as may be directed to him by the presiding officer thereof.

9. A joint standing committee to be called the Committee on Joint Rules shall be appointed, to consist of four Senators, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party, four Representatives, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, which last two officers shall be ex officio members of the Committee.

10. All joint conventions shall be held in the hall of the House of Representatives unless a different place shall be designated in the resolution by which such joint convention is convened. All such joint conventions shall be presided over by the President of the Senate, or if for any reason the President of the Senate be absent or decline to preside, then the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall preside.

11. In all joint conventions and joint meetings of the two houses no business shall be transacted other than that for which they were assembled.

12. When a message is sent to the Senate or to the House of Representatives, it shall be delivered in writing to the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House, who shall deliver such message to the Chair.

13. Messages shall be sent by such persons as the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or Speaker of the House may designate for that purpose.

14. When bills which have passed one house are ordered to be printed in the other, a greater number of copies shall not be printed than may be necessary for the use of the house making the order.

15. When the Governor has informed either house of the General Assembly that he has signed a bill or joint resolution, or taken any other action affecting both houses of the General Assembly, the house to which his action is reported shall inform the other house of the General Assembly of the Governor's report.

16. Any proposed amendments to these rules shall be referred to the Committee on Joint Rules.

17. The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives shall at the time of delivery of the enrolled acts and resolutions for the signature of the presiding officer leave with the minute clerk a copy of a written message setting out the numbers of the enrolled acts or resolutions so submitted.

18. A motion to recess for more than three days shall be deemed to have failed unless approved by a majority of the members elected in each house. Such majority shall be established by roll call vote.

19. The joint rules, upon adoption, shall govern the General Assembly for the term of that General Assembly unless suspended or amended.

20. If:

(1) two bills amending the same section of the Indiana Code are approved in the same session of the General Assembly, and neither bill recognizes the existence of the other;

(2) one bill amends a section of the Indiana Code and another bill repeals that section with an effective date preceding the effective date of the amendment; or

(3) two bills each add a new provision to the Indiana Code at the same code citation without either bill recognizing the addition made by the other and both bills are approved in the same session of the General Assembly;

one of the two bills may be corrected at enrollment to recognize the existence of the other by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedures of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Rules and Legislative Procedure of the Senate. However, a correction under this rule is limited to the extent necessary to resolve the technical conflict and may not be made unless the report of each of the two committees includes the written consent of the respective committee's ranking minority member. In addition, the committee report in each house must include the written consent of the corrected bill's author or sponsor, as the case may be, in that house.

21. If a bill is passed which clearly expresses the intent that a SECTION thereof becomes effective on a date other than the standard statutory effective date set forth in the Indiana Code, but does not use the technical emergency provision for such effective date, then the Rules and Legislative Procedures Committee of the House of Representatives and the Rules and Legislative Procedure Committee of the Senate may correct the bill at enrollment to include the technical emergency provision for the expressed effective date. For the correction to be made, each House must adopt a committee report setting forth the correction and containing the written consent of the Chairperson and ranking minority member of the Rules Committee of that House and the author or sponsor of the bill in that House.
